Police seeking witnesses to alleged city centre assault

A TEENAGED girl was allegedly violently raped in city centre car park near a shopping centre, bustling with shoppers on a busy Sunday morning.

Thames Valley Police is urgently calling for witnesses following the reported rape, said to have happened between 12.45pm and 1pm on Sunday, May 10.

The 17-year-old victim was walking through a car park in central Milton Keynes, near a shopping centre, when she became aware of a man near her.

In broad daylight, with shoppers and pedestrians likely just metres away, the victim was grabbed, and subsequently raped by the man, according to a police report.

No further information about the incident is available at this stage. Det Chief Insp Kelly Glister, from Milton Keynes Force CID, said: "This incident took place on a busy Sunday in the centre of Milton Keynes and there would undoubtedly have been people who saw or heard something when it happened.

"It may be that you saw two people having some kind of altercation, or saw someone being attacked, or maybe you saw a young woman who appeared distressed, or a man acting suspiciously. It is vital that we establish the circumstances around this incident, and ascertain exactly what happened.

"I would like to speak to anyone who has any information, no matter how insignificant the detail may seem to them, as it could be vital to our investigation.

"Thames Valley Police takes all reports of this nature extremely seriously and we are conducting a thorough investigation."

Anyone with information call Thames Valley Police on 101 or Crimstoppers on 0800 555 111.

Tributes paid to man who left his mark on city

AN ARCHITECT whose profound influence on Milton Keynes can be seen throughout the city has died.

Derek John Walker, who designed the iconic Central Milton Keynes Shopping Centre, died on Monday aged 86.

Mr Walker also designed The City Park and Sculpture Park for Central Milton Keynes. Willen Lake and Milton Keynes' housing infrastructure were also his projects.

Friends of the Blackburn-born architect said although his health had been in decline, his sudden death still came as a shock.

Leading the tributes this week, Frank Henshaw - who worked with Mr Walker at Milton Keynes Development Corporation - said: "Derek was an extremely talented and gifted man. He is largely responsible for the architectural philosophy of the city. Milton Keynes was extremely lucky to have had him."

Parking charges to go up in city on Monday

Price hike: Parking signs are altered to reflect new prices coming in on Monday

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

CHARGES for parking in the centre of Milton Keynes will increase with immediate effect on Monday.

Standard purple spaces – which currently cost 40p per hour – will increase by 10p to 50p an hour, while premium red bays will rise from £1.40 an hour to £2.00 an hour.

Long-stay (blue) spaces, which can be parked in for a day, will also become more expensive, going from £8 to £10 a day.

Employees will also feel less change in their pockets after permits, RingGo and scratchcards will increase from £1.60 per day to £2.00 a day – an annual jump from £360 to £450.

There are some alterations to the parking spaces themselves – with 234 underused red spaces being converted to purple.

There will also be 81 'Shop & Go' spaces offering three hours of free parking to shoppers, and 101 'family friendly' spaces reserved for business workers arriving after 9.15am due to child-care commitments.

City centre manager Melanie Beck, who represents businesses in the city centre, said that while the changes were 'welcome' they were also a 'drop in the ocean' and more needed to be done to help workers struggling to find a space.

She said: "As yet we have heard nothing further from the councillors responsible.

"However, we respect that elections have been a factor in the day-to-day focus.

"Hopefully this will now change and we can work on a long-term solution."

All surplus income from parking, of which the council received £9.2 million in 2014/15, is ringfenced, with a council spokesman saying: "This funding goes firstly on providing spaces and maintaining the parking areas and then. After those needs are met any surplus can go on passenger transport, highway or road improvements."

Bright days: Home Bargains store

Sunniest April brings shoppers out in force

MILTON KEYNES shoppers love to bag a bargain with the city's discount shops seeing an 8.4-per-cent rise in sales.

Figures released from Barclaycard show bargain-hunting in the city grew faster than other spends for April, compared with the same month last year. The sunniest April on record also encouraged more MK consumers to eat out, update their wardrobes, and improve their gardens.

Clothing retailers in the city experienced a boost in spending, with sales of women's clothing increasing 8.5 per cent and men's clothing growing 6.2 per cent. Restaurants saw spending increase by 12.4 per cent and garden centre spending was 6.8 per cent higher.

MK residents also showed they like having a good time – with money spent on cinema, theatre and dance rising by 9.3 per cent. The difficulties being faced by supermarkets was clear in Milton Keynes, with a one-per-cent decrease in spending. Spend on fuel experienced a greater decrease as people spent 10.8 per cent less on petrol in April year on year.

Wheels of fortune: The Aston Martin and its former owner, Sir Peter Ustinov

Bidding war for '60s star's car

BY SARAH LEE
editor@mk-news.co.uk

AN ASTON Martin originally owned by Hollywood actor Sir Peter Ustinov sold at auction in Newport Pagnell for £1.5million.

In its 60th anniversary year, Aston Martin Works hosted the biggest-ever sale of luxury vehicles, staged by auction house Bonhams, on Saturday.

More than 50 cars and 170 lots of automobilia were auctioned, including the 1962 DB4 Series IV Vantage Convertible formerly owned by Sir Ustinov.

The London-born actor famed for his roles in the 1960s movie Spartacus was living in a hotel in Switzerland when he took delivery of the brand-new vehicle in 1962 - just a year after he had won an Oscar for Best Supporting Actor for his role as Lentulus Batiatus in the gladiatorial epic.

The British sports car cost Ustinov around £4,000 at a time the average British home was £2,500.

It was last sold in 2011 for £430,000 before the owner entered it into Saturday's sale.

One of only nine DB4 Series IV convertibles ever made, the car's value was estimated at £900,000-£1m.

But huge international interest saw bidding go through the roof with the new owner eventually paying a cool £1.5million for the coolest of convertibles.

The highest-priced car sold was a 1966 Aston Martin DB5 Convertible in Vantage specification, which made £1,524,700.

James Knight, Bonhams Head of Motor Cars said: "As pioneers of the single-marque sale, we returned to the Works Service here in Newport Pagnell for another great auction, exceeding all previous year's totals, with £10.3million of motor cars sold.

"The quintessentially British marque of Aston Martin attracts interest from enthusiasts across the world, a fact demonstrated here today as we took bids from all corners of the globe."

Wear a wig for Sharmane

A HUSBAND and father from Milton Keynes is raising money for his wife and love of his life Sharmane Thompson who is currently suffering from Hodgkins Lymphoma – a type of blood cancer that effects the lymphatic system.

Paul Thompson, 38 from Bradwell village has decided to inject some humour into what is an otherwise testing and heartbreaking situation by raising money for Macmillan Cancer Support via a Just Giving Page.

Having had chemotherapy to help fight her illness, Sharmane Thompson,27, who was diagnosed in February, is struggling to come to terms with her hair loss and the fact that she now wears a wig.

Now Mr Thompson is asking people to take selfies wearing wigs to show their support under the hashtag #wigsforsharmane.

Fun raising: Paul and Sharmane Thompson injected some humour into an otherwise heartbreaking situation

Paul said: "We would dearly like this to go viral, so now it's over to you, friends, family, work colleagues, strangers -show your support, show you have a sense of humour and show those with hair loss that they are not alone and that people out there really do care.

"Most importantly, let's raise money for an extremely worthwhile cause and have fun doing it."

Repair the redways...

R SELLS of Monkston wrote a cracking letter making a number of brilliant points among which was 'redways were a magnificent asset of the new city and should be kept in good repair' ('Invest in the Redways', Letters, MK NEWS, April 22).

When I was a local MK councillor, I used to report redway cracks and potholes to the council.

The big problem was that, financially, redways were betwixt and between, neither classed as roads, which came under the highways budget for maintenance, nor footpaths, which had their own budget.

Part of a redway is damaged by a doctor's surgery and school; if a patient's mobility scooter doesn't get tipped over a kiddy on a scooter may. Or a mum's baby buggy.

I have reported it for repair but frankly I do not expect the repairs to be carried out any time soon.

As a parish councillor I have to do the MK councillors' job for them. They get paid. I don't. I want my money back!

Cross with care

IT WOULD seem that your correspondent must have incorrectly speed-read my letter regarding the cause of accidents on our grid roads ('It's speed that kills, Letters, MK NEWS, April 29).

Driving within the speed limit is not speeding and I have never suggested that it is acceptable to speed.

Yes, speeding can cost lives but to suggest that I or anyone else who really understands the situation in MK does not know this is rather naive.

Our roads are more than capable of coping with the national speed limits that apply to them.

Pedestrians are never going to come off well when confronted by a vehicle on our grid roads.

I have never crossed a dual carriage grid road in the 30-plus years I have lived in MK. We have much safer ways of crossing them. Let's use them and stop the needless deaths that occur.

Maybe we should bring back the Tufty Club and better educate all young (and older) residents of the care needed when pedestrians come anywhere near motor vehicles?

Alderman Paul Bartlett
Stony Stratford

'Yes' was right vote

IF MY experience is typical, hardly anyone in the city was aware of the referendum on Thursday for the CMK Business Neighbourhood Plan, still less about its purpose and the issues involved.

Unfortunately, Milton Keynes Council's web page on the subject was not clear either.

This is a shame because the referendum was another first for Milton Keynes – a local plan that involved the business community as well as residents. The issues and consequences of voting were actually quite simple.

Voting 'yes' would protect green open space and the original framework of grid roads, boulevards, pavements etc. MK's original ethos, which is clearly so successful and popular.

A 'no' vote would mean we lose a crucial chance to protect all this.

This means we'd be stuck with the widely discredited current plans and policies produced by the council more than 10 years ago, which positively encourage the break-up of CMK's original design.

These were responsible for the scandal of Secklow Gate, Primark at the expense of the market, The Hub blocks and the idea of blocks of flats in Station Square.

A 'no' vote meant we'd be back to an unmanaged free-for-all, with opportunistic, short-sighted development, with the craven council reluctantly giving planning permission for things it didn't in fact want.

A 'yes' vote would have been a vote for a plan that takes a balanced approach, promoting growth and development of high quality, building on CMK's distinguished legacy.

Most of all, it would be for developments that are in line with the wishes of local people and businesses.

Bus change bother

I AM writing in response to the letter in last week's paper from Chris Gossop on the change to our bus service.

I travelled on the number 4 bus daily until May 3.

I used to catch the 6.15am Arriva bus from Great Holm to the city centre. I'd then catch a further bus to Dunstable that left at 6.38am.

Since May 3 this bus has stopped running and the earliest bus that comes near Great Holm is at 6.35am (the number 14). Unfortunately, that is too late to catch my connection to Dunstable.

When I emailed Arriva about this change it replied: "...this journey/ service was not well used."

Now I have to walk to the centre to catch a bus to Dunstable. This takes about 45 minutes. Or I can walk to the railway station, which takes about 20 minutes. This will be uncomfortable in the winter.

I then pick up the only bus around at that time, the 300. This leaves the station at 6.15am and fills up very quickly with people going to work at Magna Park.

How are we going to encourage people out of their cars if there is no service? Surely, not all routes are 'well used' but there should be a service offered.

Labour down, not out

I AM writing to congratulate Iain Stewart on his re-election as our local MP. It was a good result for Iain and the Conservative Party more widely. We face some big challenges ahead as a growing new city and I wish him well sticking up for MK.

I would also like to thank the thousands of people who put their hope and trust in Labour and voted for Emily or myself last Thursday.

Milton Keynes is an amazing place. Growing up in MK in a working class family, I never thought I'd ever end up running to be one of our MPs. I enjoyed every minute of the election. It was a privilege to see MK through the eyes of such a diverse population and to listen to the different stories, hopes and aspirations of our great place. Thank you to everyone who showed me countless acts of kindness and shared their stories of resilience over the last few years. I finish this election prouder than ever to be a son of this new city.

But there is more to be done. MK can only succeed when all our residents have the opportunity to succeed. There is too much inequality in MK, too many barriers for young people to get on, too little support for small businesses and entrepreneurs wanting to build our future success, too many families feeling insecure despite the economy beginning to pick up.

The simple reality is that Labour failed to win enough trust to govern this time. We are down, but not out. We have some wonderful councillors and remain ambitious for Milton Keynes. Our job now is to listen and to understand why we lost, and to champion the progressive values of MK. The journey continues for MK and I am glad to be part of it.

Hero beekeeper saves the day

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A BEEKEEPER from Newport Pagnell saved the day on Monday after a swarm of bees made the High Street buzz for all the wrong reasons.

It is not known where the swarm of more than 1,000 bees came from, but bee expert Ed Reney told MK NEWS they could have come from up to three miles away in a bid to find a new home.

The bees were buzzing around Andrew Charles Jewellers, landing on the windows and doors leading owner David Lill to fear he may be forced to close for weeks if the insects made their way into his roof. But Ed came to the rescue not only of Mr Lill but also of the bees when he brought one of his unused bee boxes to give them a new home.

The 66-year-old, from Marlow Drive, said: "I have all the equipment in my car ready to catch swarms and I had a call from friends at The Canon pub. I put the bee box outside the jewellers."

Throughout the afternoon some of the bees began to collect outside Keech Hospice charity shop on the pavement surrounding the queen bee.

After watching people rush past, 16-year-old Dylan Spriddle, from Springfield, asked Claytons for some caution tape to put around the bees. He said: "I sat there for a while warning people after I saw one old man walk through and they flew all over him."

Ed returned at 6pm when it was cooler and the queen went into the hive with the others following. Mr Lill said: "Ed was so helpful and without him I don't know what we would have done."

VIDEO: NEWPORT PAGNELL HIGH STREET ABUZZ WITH ACTIVITY

www.mkweb.co.uk

BEAT THE BEES WITH A PAIR OF SHADES

ED RENEY, who has kept bees for more than 16 years, stressed that without bees we would have no fruit or vegetables.

He said: "Honey bees and bumble bees pollenate our fruit and vegetables and without them we wouldn't have these and a lot of other things.

"A swarm exists when bees move house as the queen is getting older and her entourage follow. They could sting you but swarms don't usually sting as they have eaten before the move and have full stomachs so like after having a three course meal they are unlikely to want to bend over to sting you.

"The worst thing to do when walking past bees is to wave your arms about as this only grabs their attention. You should just walk calmly past and if you have sunglasses with you put them on.

"Bees cannot move their eyes so are fascinated by ours and can go for them.

"But when we wear sunglasses they can't see our eyes move and we just look like them."

Schoolgirls' great escape

PARENTS do not blame Old Stratford Primary School after their daughters escaped through a gap in the hedge to go home and play.

After planning their great escape for 24 hours, the children crawled through the opening behind the school kitchen. But the youngsters were spotted in the garden of a house which backs onto the school by a neighbour. They were escorted back to school and told off by head teacher Gill Tween.

Mrs Tween said: "In all my 37 years of teaching, I have never had children escape. These girls admitted to me they had planned their actions the previous day."

One parent said: "The headteacher was absolutely mortified."

Another mum added: "It is more the children's own personalities rather than something the school did."

‘Sorry state for new major city’

Call for action: Martin Page next to the road where he nearly lost his life

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A 27-YEAR-OLD man wants to show his support for MK NEWS’ Walk Safe Campaign 15 years on from his accident as he believes nothing has changed.

Martin Page, from Bletchley, was 12 years old when he was hit by a car on Chaffron Way in 2000. After getting off his school bus, the children were unable to use the underpass because it was flooded, forcing them all to cross a 70-mile-per-hour road.

Despite being hit by a car and still suffering knee problems, Martin knows he is lucky to still be alive. The woman that hit him had seen that children were crossing the road and slowed down to 30 miles per hour. Martin was still thrown from the vehicle and had to undergo an operation for a broken nose and physiotherapy for his knees.

Martin’s heart sunk when he read in MK NEWS that people are still dying crossing the roads.

He said: “The roads are incredibly fast in Milton Keynes and people still feel the underpasses are unsafe when on your own.

“I think the speeds should be reduced as at lower speeds people are more likely to survive.

“People not only drive at national speed limit on roads, but they often go over and I know people will hate me for saying this but I think more speed cameras need to be introduced.

“The situation doesn’t seem to be getting any better and if we don’t do something it is going to get worse.

“Younger generations of people are getting hurt. I am backing the campaign because this is a sorry state for a new major city that is being praised for things like its economy.”

Sentenced: Bryan Burke

Burglar banged up

A 41-YEAR-OLD man has been sentenced to a total of nine years for a number of offences including burglaries in Milton Keynes.

Bryan Burke, of Meadow Bank, Towcester, Northamptonshire, was convicted and sentenced to nine years’ imprisonment on Wednesday, May 6, at Northampton Crown Court.

He pleaded guilty to 11 counts of burglary dwelling, three motor vehicle thefts and charges of fraud and handling stolen goods.

The offences were all committed in Milton Keynes, Northamptonshire and Bedfordshire between February and June 2014.

Among evidence in court was a statement from a victim, noting the impact of a burglary, including the loss of irreplaceable sentimental items and photographs.

Did you see teatime assault?

THAMES Valley Police have issued an E-fit in an appeal for witnesses following a report of a sexual assault on Tuesday, May 5, in Milton Keynes.

At approximately 6.20pm a 19-year-old woman was walking along Bradwell Common Boulevard when she was approached by a man. He engaged her in conversation and indecently assaulted her.

The offender is Asian, about 5ft 8ins, in his late teens, slim with broad muscular shoulders, straight brown hair, with a fringe. He wore dark blue jeans, a jacket and a T-shirt.

Anyone with information is asked to call 101.

Grieving mum's plea for support

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A DEVASTATED mother is backing calls from a coroner to have a psychologist as part of the diabetes team at Milton Keynes Hospital.

Angie Gardner recently attended an inquest into the death of her 20-year-old son Aran Gardner, who was diagnosed with type one diabetes aged just seven.

Coroner Tom Osborne heard from both members of the hospital's diabetes team and from Aran's family about the psychological problems some youngsters who have the condition suffer with.

Aran died on December 8 last year shortly after a stint in hospital from which he was appropriately discharged.

But Angie, who lives in Galley Hill, believes that psychological help needs to be provided in-house at the hospital, under the same roof where patients receive other medical help.

Angie told MK NEWS: "The team at the hospital did everything they could for him, but the effect having the condition had on him caused him to die, rather than the condition itself. In-house help is the way to go."

Hoping for a change: Angie Gardner is mourning for Aran, inset

At the inquest on April 30, Mr Osborne ruled Aran died of natural causes as a result of a cardiac arrest, after being discovered by a friend on the floor of his apartment in Bletchley.

Now Mr Osborne is writing to the Milton Keynes Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) to see whether they can post a psychologist to the diabetes team - although he also heard from a staff member of the team that this was entirely reliant on funding that may not be available.

It is a call which Angie is backing, saying: "If a psychologist was posted to the diabetes team it would be the best outcome I could wish for from this terrible tragedy.

"If one person got the help they needed it wouldn't have been completely pointless."

Superheroes up for party time

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A MASCOT company in Milton Keynes is holding a superhero party to raise money for two charities.

Corina Clever, from Monkston, owner of Corina Mascot Hire, has organised a children's disco and is getting help from Transformers Optimus Prime and Bumble Bee who will get the party started.

But it doesn't end there – a breakdancing and somersaulting Spiderman, also known as Ruel DaCosta, will also get your children climbing the walls. Ruel is from Paramount Parkour Academy in Milton Keynes, the UK's first indoor Parkour and Free Running academy.

The disco at Monkston Park Community Centre is raising money for Willen Hospice, which helps people and their families in their final days, and The Henry Allen Trust, who are raising money to support children diagnosed with cancer.

Helping hands: Corina Clever has enlisted some special help

Batman and Iron Man will also be making appearance s at the superhero disco, which will include face painting and kids' drinks, on Wednesday, June 3, from 5.30pm to 7pm.

Corina is well known in Milton Keynes as the real -life Elsa from Disney's Frozen.

She said: "This disco is for two great causes and judging from the reaction we have already had from the Autobots at other events I think the children are going to love it!

"The superheroes have been rehearsing together for a special dance but they are keeping the song they are dancing to a secret until the night."

Celebration of all things Dons

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

HUNDREDS of MK Dons fans packed out Middleton Hall in the centre:mk to celebrate the club's promotion to the Championship.

Dons achieved the feat after beating Yeovil Town 5-1 last Sunday so to mark the occasion, fans got the chance to see their heroes on stage.

Highlights of the best games were played out to the crowd while a presentation took place of the trophy which Dons won.

Chairman Pete Winkelman, manager Karl Robinson and players including captain Dean Lewington, striker Will Grigg and midfield sensation Dele Alli also spoke at the ceremony.

"It's been absolutely superb today," said fan Peter Bright, 65, from Greenleys.

"They've played great football all season and they've been unbelievable.

"The supporters in MK are fantastic as well and everybody's happy and friendly."

Robinson said he was glad that the ceremony took place at Middleton Hall rather than at stadiummk.

"Everyone comes to the stadium every week anyway and this opens up and branches out to new fans," he said.

"We want to thank everyone who has played their part and the players were extremely looking forward to it."

He also said that he didn't think an open-top-bus parade was the right thing to do to celebrate the achievement because Dons got promoted by finishing second.

"We've not won anything so we don't deserve that," he said.

We are going up: Dons fans, players and staff celebrate

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Excellent Value - Quality Care

Will you help the people helping the homeless?

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A CHARITY that helped 300 people a year in Milton Keynes is now having to rebuild its volunteer support after it was almost forced to close by cuts in Milton Keynes Council funding.

As MKWeb reported at the end of 2014, funding for groups and charities was reduced by Milton Keynes Council (MKC), which had to find of £22million of savings in its budget review.

But despite having some of the worst figures in the UK for people living in B&B accomodation, the council threatened to withdraw all funding for Bletchley-based charity Connection Floating Support.

Due to the chance of closure the housing charity, which helps people avoid homelessness and achieve independence, was unable to function and its volunteers have now gone elsewhere.

Ultimately the charity retained some of its funding and was able to continue its work - but is now in need of new volunteers.

Emma El-Badaoui, volunteer co-ordinator, said: "Anyone could be suddenly made homeless after losing their job, family members or not knowing how to deal with bills and there are many unseen homeless, those sofa surfing or in B&Bs.

"We need to dispel the myths that these people have brought it on themselves."

If you are interested in volunteering email EmmaEl-Badaoui@Connectionfs.org

Shocks no obstacle for Strongman racer Rob

A MILTON KEYNES man took on Europe's biggest obstacle race for the third time this weekend, tackling 13 miles and 17 gruelling obstacles to secure an impressive sub three-hour finish at the Fisherman's Friend StrongmanRun in Germany.

Rob Foulkes, 28, of Woburn Sands, raced to the finish line in 2hr 21min as part of an elite five-strong 'Team Britain'.

Racers from across Europe took on 13-miles of brutal hills and ice-cold water at the famed Nürburgring circuit as thousands of spectators looked on.

A delighted Rob said: "I'm chuffed with the result. I've been training hard since the start of the year to take on this challenge, but it certainly lived up to its reputation.

"My least favourite obstacle had to be the electric shock crawl, which is about as much fun as it sounds."

King of the 'gring: Rob Foulkes

Life-savers: Steve reunited with Mike, Mike and Elliot

Lifesaving reunion

BY JESSICA DUNCAN
jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A MILTON Keynes man has been reunited with the South Central Ambulance Service (SCAS) crews who saved his life following a cardiac arrest.

Steve Persighetti, 59, was at home in February with his wife Rozany when he started to experience severe pain throughout his chest and arms.

With Steve's pain worsening, Rozany quickly phoned 999 and within four minutes, specialist paramedic Mike Lowe was on the scene, quickly followed by ambulance nurse Mike Ambrose and emergency care assistant Elliot Skirrow.

Steve went into cardiac arrest en route to John Radcliffe Hospital but the prompt actions of the crew meant he was able to arrive alive.

On April 28, Steve and Rozany travelled to Milton Keynes Ambulance Station to be reunited with Mike, Mike and Elliot.

Steve said: "Once I'd recovered I realised I wanted to say thank you to the ambulance crews involved as obviously without their help, I wouldn't be here."

Rozany explained: "It was a fantastic job done by Mike, Mike and Elliot and I'm eternally grateful because if not for them Steve wouldn't be here today."

Mike Lowe added: "To meet a patient whose life we've saved is a wonderful thing and a great buzz for all of us."

The West End comes to MK

Inspiring: Sam Attwater and Vicky Ogden will teach children performing arts

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A PERFORMING arts school is to be set up in the city where children can learn about singing, dancing and acting.

Dancing On Ice stars Vicky Ogden and Sam Attwater have teamed up with fellow husband-and-wife team and West End stars Paul Riddiford and Laurie Scarth to launch the Universal Performing Arts School (UPA), which will operate out of Walton High in Walnut Tree from September 12.

A record of achievements will also be available for parents so that they can keep up with how their children are getting on at the school, which will teach students aged six to 18.

But before all that takes place, the West End Boot Camp will take place from August 3 to 7.

MK NEWS has teamed up with the UPA to offer one lucky reader the chance to win a place on the West End Boot Camp for free. Parental permission must be granted for you to enter the competition.

Students will learn material from West End musicals and the week will culminate with a special showcase from students at The Venue on Fyfield Barrow, Walnut Tree, which parents can watch.

"It's something we've said we wanted to do for a long time," said Sam.

Vicky added: "We wanted to give something back to the community and help.

"Getting involved in drama or performing arts like this is a massive way to build confidence up for children."

A TV acting masterclass will also be given by Sam and to win a place there, email a 30-second video of you singing, acting or dancing to theteam@upaschool.com before the deadline of June 27.

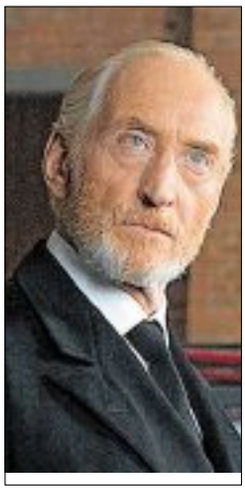
DEPICTED as a bit of a baddy in The Imitation Game, Alastair Denniston was anything but that when you actually look at what he achieved.

Played by Charles Dance in the film, he is depicted as an unsupportive boss who wants rid of Alan Turing, but his contribution to the war effort was invaluable and the Second World War would have lasted a lot longer without Denniston's input.



Star role: Charles Dance

His family have come out and expressed their disappointment at how he was shown, while Bletchley Park veteran Lady Marion Body said his depiction spoiled the film for her.

"The film wasn't a portrayal of him, they just used his name and had a baddy figure for dramatic effect," said Dr Joel Greenberg, a Bletchley Park historian who is writing a book about the man.

Denniston, who died in 1961, was a cryptologist during the First World War and helped form Room 40 in the Admiralty, which helped the British Navy decipher the enemy's messages.

He continued in the Government Code and Cypher School afterwards after it was merged with the Army's code-breaking effort and the team of which he was a critical part was moved to Bletchley Park.

Denniston was the man responsible for recruiting people to Bletchley Park and finding the cream of the crop in British universities to help decipher German messages.

One of those recruits was Turing, along with Gordon Welchmann, who we featured in the last of our series of unsung heroes at Bletchley Park.

Denniston also recognised the importance of his staff having recreational facilities at Bletchley Park for when they weren't codebreaking and he helped establish links with the U.S. when he flew to America in 1941 where he worked with their cryptologists.

After he came back, Denniston worked on deciphering diplomatic traffic, which proved to be just as important as the military messages because he was able to read what ambassadors of countries such as Japan, Italy and of course, Germany, had to say.

Despite all these achievements, Dr Greenberg believes that Denniston was given short shrift by people looking at the war efforts and he is keen for people to understand how important he was through his new book.

"He was a significant figure in two wars and he has been airbrushed out of history a bit," said Dr Greenberg.

"When he died in 1961 there weren't even any obituaries which was really quite sad.

"I'm really hoping to produce a book which is a proper tribute to him."

END CREDITS ROLL FOR CINEMA

A CINEMA used for educational visits to Bletchley Park has been shut down to accommodate more changes at the site.

Set up in 1994 by The Projected Picture Trust, the Museum of Cinema Technology seated up to 42 people and exhibited various war-time news reels and government information films using old projection equipment.

According to the museum, the departure of these private collections is part of the 'wider evolution of Bletchley Park as a world class heritage site and is in line with the strategic development and regeneration of Bletchley Park, overseen by the Bletchley Park Trust.'

As part of the future plans for Bletchley Park, exhibition and gallery space is to be expanded, a state-of-the-art education facility will be created, along with a modern archive to house Bletchley Park's unique and history-changing collection.

Bletchley Park's director of operations and communications Kelsey Griffin said: "The Bletchley Park Trust remains incredibly grateful for the long-standing contribution and service of those individuals associated with the Bletchley Park Post Office, the Projected Picture Trust and other private collections.

"On the seventieth anniversary of VE Day, the Bletchley Park Trust announced its masterplan for further restoration and development of this historic site which represents a fitting tribute to the contribution of the thousands of men and women who worked here during WW2."

WHY YOU SHOULD BE WORRIED IF YOUR BANK NO LONGER OFFERS YOU FINANCIAL ADVICE

We were recently approached by a lady, Susan, on behalf of her mother, Dorothy, who has been left high and dry by her bank, HSBC's, financial advisory arm who no longer offer financial advice!

Dorothy who is aged 83 and lives locally in Milton Keynes has £230K invested in an HSBC discretionary fund management (DFM) service as well as a further £100K invested in another HSBC DFM which is held in a trust for the benefit of her grandchildren.

What is truly shocking is that she recently visited her branch seeking some advice and was told that HSBC no longer offers financial advice for customers!!!! Dorothy is worried and doesn't know where to turn to for advice.

Her daughter Susan lives in the North West of England. When she found out about her mother's dilemma she immediately did a search on Google and found two useful websites one of which was unbiased.co.uk and the other vouchedfor.co.uk. Unbiased.co.uk is a directory of independent financial advisers whereas vouchedfor.co.uk is a testimonials website for professional advisers. She chose us because she wanted a firm of Chartered Financial Planners with a specialism in investment management and estate planning including Inheritance Tax mitigation. She supplemented her research with checking our website at wealthandtax.co.uk focussing on our many client video testimonials.

Tony Byrne
Financial Planning Director
Wealth And Tax Management

We recently had our first meeting with Dorothy and her son Brian at our offices with Susan joining the meeting on a Skype video call from her living room in the North West of England. The meeting went very well.

We have been asked to produce a Wealth And Tax Management plan for Dorothy to include our proposals for managing her investments, her grandchildren's trust investments and our strategies for protecting her wealth and reducing her Inheritance Tax liability. She has an estate worth more than £1 million. Needless to say we accepted her invitation!

Dorothy and her family are now reassured and looking forward to receiving their plan with confidence.

Damaged: Head teacher Andy Cox next to the sheds which caught fire at Wavendon Gate School

Plea for equipment after school blaze

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THE head teacher of a school which was hit by a fire this month has urged people to donate any spare PE equipment they may have.

A fire broke out in some sheds at Wavendon Gate School between 1-2am on Monday, May 4 – destroying the equipment that was stowed away there.

The fire then spread to the main school building, but was thankfully halted by firefighters who arrived to prevent further damage.

The school has opened as usual since as classrooms escaped the flames.

Head teacher Andy Cox told MK NEWS: "If anyone has any spare bats and balls or any PE equipment then we would be grateful as all ours went up in smoke.

"We'd like to thank the fire service as the fire could have been so much worse."

89k said yes – but to what?

AS WELL the general and council elections, voters cast their views on the future of Milton Keynes in the CMK Alliance referendum on Thursday.
Despite a little confusion in some quarters about what the vote was actually for, almost 90,000 residents said YES to the plan.
But what does it mean for the future of the city? Jack Ash finds out…

DUBBED 'as big as the promotion of MK Dons', the YES vote on the CMK Alliance referendum means massive changes for Milton Keynes in the years ahead.

Almost 90,000 residents voted to support the proposal, which sets out clear guidelines for how the city will develop.

Green spaces and Milton Keynes' famous grid roads will receive more protection as a result of the overwhelmingly positive vote.

The building of 5,000 new homes, a marina in Campbell Park, and a Milton Keynes University are all proposed.

The plan was drawn up by the CMK Alliance, a steering group of residents, councillors and business leaders from Milton Keynes.

CMK Alliance member Linda Inoki said: "It is a fantastic result and is just what we need to keep Milton Keynes special.

"Keep the grid roads, the green spaces and boulevards and encourage development in the areas that development was always meant to be in.

"It shows Milton Keynes is open to new ideas and positive change and Milton Keynes again makes history."

The vote was split into two sections with 356 businesses (88.3 per cent) voting in favour, and 89,801 residents (84 per cent) passing the plan.

Tim Skelton, election agent for the Yes Campaign, said: "This was the single biggest referendum on a planning issue in this country and is as big as the promotion of MK Dons. We were concerned about people not understanding [what they were voting for] but it is clear that enough people did."

Yes we can: Linda Inoki, with David Foster of the Parks Trust, backed the plan

WHAT YOU VOTED FOR

More offices and 5,000 new homes

A new marina at the canal in Campbell Park.

Establish a major university in the city centre with 5,000 new students studying in Milton Keynes by 2026.

New sports, community and medical facilities, and more hotels

A new public square and a covered market hall.

A second transport hub in the main shopping centre - with integrated passenger facilities.

More parking spaces and a shuttle service to link up businesses, retail and parking areas.

Tories win

CONSERVATIVES Mark Lancaster and Iain Stewart were voted to be Milton Keynes North and South MPs for another five years.

Mr Lancaster won 27,244 votes with Labour's Emily Darlington on 17,491, while Iain Stewart won 27,601 votes with Andrew Pakes of Labour on 18,929.

Dogs bite

IT was not all sunshine and smiles as candidates took to areas on their campaign trails.

Speaking to party members they said how they were left with cuts, bruises and dog bites. Following a dog bite on a colleague, the Green Party's Samantha Pancheri said: "We have a wooden spoon to push the leaflets through."

Car station

EARLY risers to the polling station in Bradville on Thursday had to put their ballot papers in the boot of a car after polling staff were temporarily locked out of the Mathiesen Centre.

Labour Councillor for Stantonbury Brian White was one of about 10 affected and said: "I never voted in a car before and it was good it wasn't raining. The staff were great and used initiative."

Online

THERE was a mixed reaction on Twitter to the news that the Conservatives were back in power in Milton Keynes.

Here's what people said:

– "YES! Mark Lancaster has held his seat."

– "This is the beginning of the end!"

– "Think I'll stay in bed today. And for the next five years."

– "I literally want to be Iain Stewart."

Tory's turn

CONSERVATIVE Andrew Buckley claimed the vacant Monkston seat that was left behind after the resignation of taxi scandal councillor Subhan Shafiq - a Liberal Democrat.

Cllr Buckley said: "We had a fantastic night nationally."

ELECTION facts

Burke gone

Ousted Shenley Brook End Liberal Democrat councillor Stuart Burke believes peoples' votes were not swayed by his part in the taxi scandal in November 2014.

Conservative Councillor Hiten Ganatra won the seat by just over 200 votes.

New balance

THIS is how Milton Keynes Council looks after Thursday's election:

Labour: 23
Conservative: 22
Lib Dem: 12

Labour are still in control of the council but only just.

Before Thursday, Labour had 25, Conservatives had 18, Lib Dems 12, UKIP had one and there was a vacant seat in the wake of the taxi scandal.

Listen...

LEADER of the Council Pete Marland said that politics cannot continue as it currently is after Thursday's election saw Labour take a battering.

He said: "You have to listen to what the people have said and they have voted for one party in particular this year.

"It is about learning from that and moving on and making Milton Keynes a better place for everybody."

UKIP voted out

Labour Councillor Carol Baume took the Bletchley East ward from Vince Peddle and is looking forward to the future.

She said: "Often Bletchley is the poor relation in Milton Keynes and the people of Bletchley need people fighting for them."

Sporting support: Harry Redknapp tees off during the charity golf day at Woburn Golf Club

Stars join drive to help MK youngsters

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

FOOTBALL legends Harry Redknapp, Glenn Hoddle and Tottenham Hotspur's World Cup-winning duo Ossie Ardiles and Ricky Villa switched sports to support a worthy charity at Woburn Golf Club.

The soccer stars teed off to raise money for the IL Stein Foundation, which will be working with disadvantaged youngsters in Milton Keynes this August.

The gang of four were at the Bedfordshire course for the Stein Foundation Golf Classic.

The Classic was an 18-hole four-ball match on the Marquess Course, where the celebrity sportsmen each hosted a team.

The sports stars rallied to an appeal from Stein brothers Edwin (the first black manager of a professional football team in the UK), Brian (who played for Luton and became the first South African to represent England) and Mark (who played for Stoke and Chelsea) who set up the foundation in honour of their parents Isaiah and Lillian.

There's loads of funny for your money...

The Crown in Stony Stratford is the venue for an evening of stand-up comedy featuring five excellent acts from across the UK next month.

With its candlelit tables, The Crown will provide an excellent atmosphere for live comedy for the event, on Thursday June 11.

Acts include Moreorlesque Sisters, Jonny Awsum and Majorie Hawkins.

The Moreorlesque Sisters are an alternative and comedic burlesque duo whose unique act combines surreal and visually inventive performance and dance with cartoonish characters and a deliberate, knowingly exaggerated edge to each act.

Jonny Awsum exploded onto the professional comedy scene with a crowd-pleasing set that's seen him perform his special feel-good brand of musical comedy around the world.

Due to pension cuts and with bills to pay, Mrs Hawkins came out of retirement to become a compere but don't let the grey hair fool you!

Since her first appearance she has spent many an afternoon driving on the motorways of England travelling to shows and has become a firm favourite on the Burlesque circuit, having been described as a cross between Mrs Brown and Sarah Millican.

Abigail's Party By Mike Leigh is on at Stantonbury Theatre this week from Wednesday, May 13 until Saturday, May 16.

It's 1977 and Beverly is throwing a little party for her neighbours, newlyweds Tony and Angela, and divorcee Sue.

Down the road, Sue's teenage daughter Abigail is throwing a party of her own, but could it be the so called grown-up's night which really spirals out of control?

Mike Leigh's comedy became a classic when it first appeared as a BBC Play For Today in 1977. It's a gloriously funny comedy of manners, a satire on the aspirations and tastes of the new middle-class in 70s Britain.

See daily performances from 7.30pm and a matinee performance on Saturday from 2.30pm.

Tickets £15, or £12 if you book four or more for shows on Wednesday, Thursday or the matinee. Visit www.playsthethingtheatrecompany.co.uk

THE STABLES: Virgil and the Accelerators return to Milton Keynes.

Renowned for pushing the boundaries of the blues rock genre and delivering incendiary live sets, Virgil and the Accelerators have been making a huge impression across Europe.

Touring in their own right and on premium support tours with the likes of Michael Schenker's Temple Of Rock, Uriah Heep and Wilko Johnson, they continue to show off their talents.

The band is coming to The Stables in Wavendon on Tuesday, May 19.

Back in 2012 the band recorded a live DVD/CD to a packed house at the Marshall Amplification HQ in Milton Keynes.

albumreview

THE MAGIC WHIP: Blur – a comeback album that leaves fans wanting more, writes James Averill.

For what was essentially a mash up of five days' worth of jams while stranded in Hong Kong – Blur's new album The Magic Whip actually sounds like an album that was years in the making.

Of course you could say that is true to an extent, their last full release before an acrimonious spilt was Think Tank in 2003.

But a reunion six years later sparked talk of a comeback album, and the result several years after that is that it sounds like they were never away.

I must confess I wasn't overly impressed with lead single Go Out when I first heard it, and to be honest my response to the whole LP wasn't overwhelmingly brilliant either.

Mowerrally

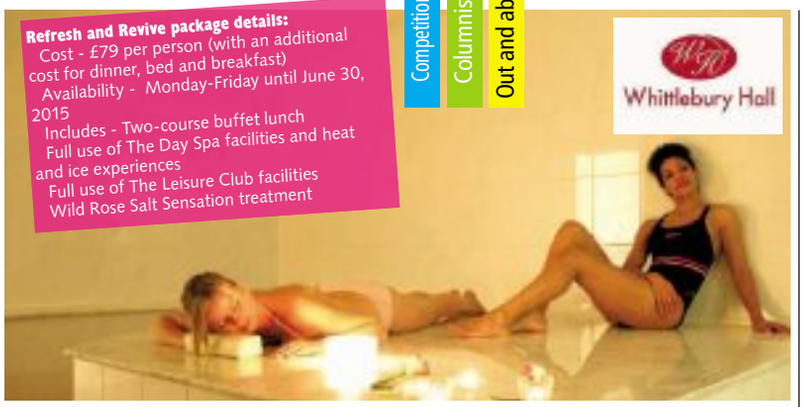
On Sunday, May 17 enjoy a close shave and the delightful smell of clipped grass when The Old Lawnmower Club holds its annual rally at Milton Keynes Museum.

The club promotes the collection, preservation and display of lawn mowers made from 1830 onwards.

Usually there is a great selection of mowers on show, ranging in age from the 1830s through to some relatively modern machines from the 1980s. This is a great day to see some fascinating old machinery on display and in action.

Tickets are £7.50 for adults, £6 for children and £22 for a family of two adults and up to four children.

The event runs from 11am to 4.30pm.



Make time to unwind in super spa

Whittlebury Hall is a slice of luxury nestled away in the Northamptonshire countryside, writes Cally Jenkins.

Its day spa is the perfect place to relax and unwind with its huge hydrotherapy pool and heat and ice experience, which invigorates the body by providing different sensations through changing temperatures.

You can increase your temperature in the aromatherapy crystal and Roman salt steam rooms, caldarium, sauna or samarium, before braving the ice cave or experience showers, including a bucket of freezing water above your head, with a chain inviting you to pull – not for the faint hearted.

There is also a well-equipped leisure club and swimming pool, which I took full advantage of.

The spa offers more than 60 treatments from the house of Clarins, Elemis, ESPA and Jessica delivered by a team of friendly therapists.

They include a Wild Rose Salt Sensation treatment, which is part of Whittlebury's Refresh and Revive package.

My body was exfoliated with a delicately scented wild rose salt and oil that left my skin feeling cleansed and silky smooth.

After a quick shower to remove the exfoliator, I enjoyed a wonderfully relaxing décolleté, face and scalp massage as part of the 50-minute treatment.

Separate treatments can be booked in addition to any of the available spa packages and my husband enjoyed a full body massage, which he found so relaxing he almost fell asleep.

A two-course buffet lunch was included in the package. As you're at a spa, you'd be forgiven for thinking this would be restricted to salad and fruit, but there was salmon, moussaka, turkey, pasta and jacket potatoes to choose from – all of them delicious.

A visit to Whittlebury Hall doesn't have to be a one-day affair.

To make the most of everything this award-winning venue has to offer, why not upgrade to dinner, bed and breakfast and check into one of its spacious en-suite bedrooms?

Following two smash-hit UK tours in 2012 and 2013, The West End Men are returning with their third tour.

Some of the finest performers of this generation have joined together to dazzle the stage with timeless songs and fantastic performances, bringing the music, spotlights and show-biz from the heart of the West End to the rest of the UK.

In addition to the announcement that the X-Factor's Marcus Collins has joined this year's tour, the line-up also includes local star James Bisp, from Buckingham, who 'spent his childhood watching productions at MK Theatre.'

Together with the fabulous Glenn Carter and Alexis Gerred, they are excited for the opening show in Milton Keynes.

The West End Men will be hitting Milton Keynes Theatre on Sunday, May 24. Don't miss it!

Meet the newest faces at safari park

There's been a bit of a baby boom at Woburn Safari Park recently.

We've had the ring tailed lemur twins, a brindled wildebeest, three eland calves, a giraffe calf named Prudence, two patas monkey babies and a very recent baby barbary macaque – phew! All new arrivals are doing very well and have settled in brilliantly with the help of their caring parents.

Everyone at the park has just enjoyed a fantastic rhino charity weekend, which was held in aid of Save The Rhino International, with more than £4,500 raised already.

Have you ever wondered where the rhino sleep when all the visitors go home at the end of the day? Or how the keepers feed all the animals at Woburn Safari Park? If you have, then why not treat yourselves or a loved one to a special VIP Safari Trail Day?

For more information go to woburnsafari.co.uk/events/vip-safari-trail-day/

What Your Agent Has To Say

Election result inspires home sellers

With a very grin on the face of every landlord and the dust finally settling on the aftermath of another general election, the housing industry has been acting with great delight over the recent majority for the Conservatives in the new parliament. The choice of new government isn't everyone's cup of tea, but it certainly promises to be good for home owners. The FTSE 100 and the pound are both on the up and a flurry of activity in the property market is now expected over the coming months, with more people choosing to put their homes on the market.

Confidence when selling is always a major factor when deciding when to sell. The recent combination of a royal birth with Princess Charlotte, and the stability promised with a continuing government, mean public confidence is stronger than it has been for a very long time. The number of new enquiries have already risen of late and all the signs indicate we will now see a lot more property coming on to the market giving buyers a lot more choice.

Greater choice will bring a much needed calm to the housing market in Milton Keynes, as price rises have been a little bit crazy in the run up to the election. Although mostly demand driven with not enough property available to buyers, the rate we saw prices rise by was frankly unsustainable. With a better balance in supply and demand in the housing market, it will be back to business as usual for home buyers and sellers (at least for the next five years anyway).

If you would like to benefit from recent events Inspired Sales & Lettings are here to help and now is the perfect time to sell your home getting ready for a summer move. Still unsure? Why not give us a call on 01908 690700 to discuss current and expected market conditions and arrange a free market appraisal of your home.

All-New Ford Galaxy From Under £26,500

Ford Motor Company today announced that the all-new Galaxy will be available with all-wheel drive. Ford's Intelligent All-Wheel Drive system delivers enhanced traction and road-holding with a seamless transition between front-wheel drive and all-wheel drive performance to provide a more secure footing, especially in slippery conditions.

Measuring how the car's wheels are gripping the road surface every 16 milliseconds – 20 times quicker than it takes to blink – the system can send up to 100 per cent of engine torque to the front or rear wheels, and make required adjustments in just 100 milliseconds. By only delivering torque where and when it is needed, Intelligent AWD has minimal impact on fuel economy and CO2 emissions compared with permanent four-wheel drive systems.

Ford is expanding the number of vehicles available with AWD. First available on Kuga, it is also available on the all-new Mondeo and S-MAX and will be offered on the Edge SUV later this year.

The all-new Galaxy's Intelligent AWD is always on. The primary goal of Intelligent AWD at low speeds is to improve traction. If, for example, the front of the vehicle is on ice and the rear is not, the all-wheel-drive system can send all the torque the powertrain can produce to the rear, putting power where the driver needs it.

At speeds above 18mph Intelligent AWD is tuned to improve driving feel, handling and responses using information from body control, braking, gearbox and the Electronic Power Assisted Steering. By sending torque to the rear wheels when cornering at speed, the system can help reduce understeer – those situations when a vehicle's momentum causes it to continue straight instead of following the driver's intended path.

The all-new Galaxy offers Intelligent AWD with the 150PS 2.0-litre TDCi diesel engine and six-speed manual transmission, and with the 180PS 2.0-litre TDCi engine and six-speed PowerShift automatic transmission. Galaxy can also be equipped with a 120PS version of the 2.0-litre TDCi engine, and Ford's new 210PS 2.0-litre TDCi bi-turbo diesel engine that offers enhanced responsiveness and 450Nm of torque from 2,000 rpm.

Petrol engine options include Ford's new fuel-efficient 160PS 1.5-litre EcoBoost and 240PS 2.0-litre EcoBoost, and the entire Galaxy engine range meets Euro Stage VI emissions standards with CO2 emissions from 129 g/km* supported by Smart Regenerative Charging, Auto-Start-Stop and Active Grille Shutter technologies.

Ford also today announced prices for the all-new Galaxy. Available to order now in Zetec, Titanium and Titanium X series, it will start from £26,445. Featuring the company's latest global design language with a sophisticated grille and slim-line headlamps, the all-new Galaxy offers seven full-size seats, with practical innovations, class-leading refinement, and advanced driver assistance technologies.

Families can easily switch between seating and load space with a segment-first feature that raises third-row seats at the push of a button. Comfort is enhanced for front seat passengers with massaging Ford Multi-Contour Seats; and for rear seat passengers with integral link rear suspension that offers a smoother, quieter ride and more space. Second- and third-row passengers benefit from up to 10mm more headroom than in the outgoing Galaxy and the third-row seats offer up to 40mm more headroom than key competitors.

The all-new Galaxy also supports drivers in town and on the highway with advanced technologies including Intelligent Speed Limiter, which when activated scans traffic signs and adjusts the throttle to help drivers stay within legal speed limits and avoid fines, and Pre-Collision Assist with Pedestrian Detection, which will reduce the severity of some frontal collisions involving vehicles and pedestrians, or help drivers avoid some impacts altogether.

Glare-Free Highbeam technology within the adaptive LED headlamps detects vehicles ahead and fades out light that could dazzle oncoming drivers, while retaining maximum illumination for other areas. A Front Split View Camera enhances the driver's field of vision when pulling out of a parking space or junction with a 180 degree camera system installed at the front of the Galaxy, and displays the image on the 8in high-resolution touchscreen in the centre console.

Galaxy takes the nameplate's signature car-like driving dynamics to a new level with Ford Adaptive Steering technology, which adjusts steering ratio according to speed to optimise manoeuvrability and precision.

The technologically advanced Galaxy seven-seat people mover was revealed for the first time in April earlier this year – on the back of a moving trailer – through a stunt performed with the help of illusionist Darcy Oake.

NEW CAR REVIEW

Volkswagen Scirocco

FOR THOSE ABOUT TO 'ROC

Volkswagen has updated the Scirocco, although you'd be forgiven for not noticing. There's some subtle styling tweaks and some modest interior changes but the bigger story is more power across the board coupled with better economy.

At the top of the range, the powerhouse Scirocco R gets an entirely different engine. It's still a 2.0-litre turbo driving the front wheels, but power now goes up to 280PS, up 15PS on the old unit. The other petrol engines comprise a 1.4-litre petrol with 125PS, and a 2.0-litre 180PS unit which replaces the previous 1.4-litre 160PS powerplant. The previous 210PS 2.0-litre TSI is given a shot in the arm to now generate 220PS. Two diesel engines are offered, both 2.0-litre units, with either 150 or 184PS. Depending on power output, both petrol and diesel engines come with a choice of six-speed manual and six or seven-speed DSG gearboxes.

Otherwise, things are much as before. The chassis remains unchanged and that'll be good news for those looking for a genuinely competent handler. No, the Scirocco has never been quite as entertaining as, say, a Renaultsport Megane at the absolute limit but the deal has always been that owners would sacrifice 10 per cent of outright ability for 50 per cent better quality.

If it ain't broke, don't facelift it has seemed to be the mantra as far as the Scirocco goes and most onlookers wouldn't be able to spot the differences to the latest version unless they had two cars parked next to each other and a good amount of time. The revised front bumper features aerodynamic 'blades' in the outer section, like those of the Mk 7 Golf GTI. There are also integrated indicator lights, daytime running lights and fog lights. Splash out on the optional bi-xenon headlamps and you also get LED daytime running lights incorporated into the headlight pods. There's more lightwork at the back, where the Scirocco is updated to LED tail lights, while the bumper has been reshaped to appear lower and more purposeful. As on the Golf, the Volkswagen logo badge now acts as the tailgate release handle. The Scirocco R gets its own bumpers and bigger alloy wheels, in this case the 18-inch 'Cadiz' rims shared with the Golf R. The 'Talladega' alloy wheel, previously reserved for the Scirocco R, is now an option for the rest of the Scirocco line up.

The Volkswagen Scirocco was a formula that didn't need wholesale changes and with this product update, it hasn't really got them. The under-bonnet updates are well worthwhile though, offering more power across the board teamed with better efficiency. The styling improvements are just a bit of sympathetic tweaking, although the interior does now look a little more contemporary. That was needed, given the big step forward the Golf 7 made over its predecessor in 2013, and while the Scirocco still doesn't feel quite as glitzy inside as the Golf, it's still leagues better than a Renault Megane or a Hyundai Veloster.

The Scirocco's formula has endured, with a notable hiatus, since 1974. Despite times changing, the basic premise hasn't. If you want a coupe that looks good, is well screwed together and which isn't going to cost a fortune to run, Volkswagen has your back.

The name Brian Currie has been synonymous with Milton Keynes for over 35 years a company that has gradually expanded to keep pace with the ever-changing demands of commercial vehicle operators.

With nine sites across the region Brian Currie holds some of the best commercial vehicle franchises in the UK, Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles being the most recent.

In July last year, the company completed a £1 Million refurbishment of its Van Centre on Summerson Road, Bleak Hall, Milton Keynes. Considerable investment has been placed in the facilities and staff; Milton Keynes the home of Volkswagen in the UK now has one of the most modern Volkswagen Commercial Vehicle Van Centres in the country.

The management team includes Sales Manager, Daniel Charlesworth, who has a 10 year's knowledge of the franchise and After Sales Manager, Heather Currie who has worked for her family's business for over 20 years.

The sales team of John Taylor and Mark Harris have many years of experience in delivering solutions for van and light commercial vehicles owners. With Caddy, Transporter and Crafter, the Shuttle passenger vehicle, the luxurious Caravelle and the durable but good-looking Amarok Pick-Up, there's a model available to match all requirements. Every Volkswagen product is a leader in its respective class, and Brian Currie Van Centre has a team that matches the manufacturer's reputation for delivering quality service, day in, day out.

More pace is needed

RED Bull Racing drivers Daniel Ricciardo and Daniil Kvyat both believe that the team isn't where it needs to be at the moment.

Ricciardo improved on his qualifying position of tenth to finish seventh in the Spanish Grand Prix at the weekend, while Russian Kvyat came home tenth.

Ricciardo says it is important for the team to keep pushing.

"I am more satisfied today as we achieved everything we could and seventh was the maximum I could get out of the car," he said.

"There were some parts of the race that were encouraging but we're still further off than where we want to be, but we'll keep pushing.

"We came here with upgrades this weekend but they didn't give us what we were expecting, so that's something we'll keep working on.

"We're still a fair bit behind Williams at the moment but I think we have a good chance to close the gap a bit further in Monaco."

Kvyat believes that his poor start contributed to him gaining just one point to add to his tally.

"I had a poor opening lap, dropping a few places and from then on that compromised my race," he said.

"Here at this track, if you lose places at the start, it's almost game over, as it is so hard to get close enough to pass.

"We need to improve the car in every area at the moment. On the positive side, both our cars finished the race, which is good on the reliability front.

"This was a bad day for me, so now I just want to look ahead to Monaco in the hope we can be more competitive there."

Improvement required: Red Bull drivers Daniel Ricciardo and Daniil Kvyat want more pace in their cars so they can begin to challenge at the business end of the World Championship

Clements latest recruit to MK

Signed up: David Clements

Picture by Ogden Mustangs

MK LIGHTNING have beaten off competition from other clubs to sign David Clements on a two-way contract with Coventry Blaze.

He is one of a number of changes going on at Lightning at the moment as they prepare for next season, with the club looking to vastly improve on their seventh-placed finish from the last campaign.

"He's a gritty, offensive defenceman who likes to take the body and plays hard in the right areas," said Lightning head coach, Pete Russell.

Clements, 20, grew up in Coventry and began his career there with the Junior Blaze but he moved to Canada at 14-years-old and played in the 2010 World Junior Championships at U18 level before captaining the team in the competition the following season.

In 2012 he signed for Ogden Mustangs in America alongside another MKL new signing this season, Bobby Chamberlain and in his last two seasons he averaged just under a point per game, proving himself a valuable playmaker with 36 assists in 45 games.

Form like that made Clements hot property who attracted a lot of interest back in Britain - but he made sure he chose his own moment to return back to his home country.

Clements said: "I had approaches from teams in both the EPL and Elite League last season, but I wanted another year to better myself.

"After six years in North America I felt it was time to come home and develop myself further. I'm very excited to have signed with MKL, and a two-way contract with Coventry Blaze helped make it an offer I couldn't refuse."

Russell said: "He was wanted by numerous teams in the UK so I was delighted he choose us as his first challenge on returning to the UK.

"He's a strong character and David also has the ability to play on the powerplay in the point. He has good hands and gets his shot away well.

"I've known David for many years and coached him in the Great Britain National Team at U20 level.

"Going on a two-way contract with our Elite League partners the Coventry Blaze will only add to his overall game.

"I've no doubt at all that he's going to have a great season."

First victory of the season for Stony Stratford

STONY Stratford won their first match of the season with a six-wicket success at Horton House in the Northamptonshire Cricket League.

Alex Strong claimed a four-wicket haul as Stony restricted the home side to 190-8 off 55 overs.

In reply, a partnership of 56 from openers Praveen Chandran (35) and James Pickles (40) got Stony off to a good start and an unbeaten 66 by Jarrod Pretorius, which included five sixes, meant that Stony hit their target with 52.5 overs gone.

North Crawley continued the defence of their Four Counties crown with a seven-wicket victory at Thurleigh thanks to 60 not out from Alex Walker. North Crawley were chasing a victory target of just 83 and they accomplished that in the 17th over.

Buckland & Aston Clinton were bowled out for a paltry 64 by Milton Keynes as Daniel Brady got a colossal eight wickets for the loss of just 22 runs. Jalil Sear scored 41 not out in reply to comfortably give Milton Keynes the win in just 13.4 overs.

New City (Milton Keynes) beat Eaton Bray by four wickets as Amit Mulay came up with impressive bowling figures of 5-24, while New Bradwell's Chris Timms scored 73 not out as they beat Biddenham by six wickets.

Milton Keynes City lost by 61 runs to Elstow.

In the Cherwell Cricket League, Wolverton Town lost by five wickets to Tiddington.

Sam Hollingshead picked up four wickets as Tiddington scored 162-5 in the first innings but Wolverton were bowled out for 160 as they came agonisingly close to securing the win.

Great Brickhill picked up 17 points as they drew with Leighton Buzzard Town. Douglas Aris had a superb knock of 107 but they just couldn't get Leighton Buzzard out so they failed to claim maximum points.

Robbo wants six players for Championship charge

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

DONS manager Karl Robinson says he wants to bring in six players as he prepares for life in the Championship next season.

Two wingers, two strikers and two midfielders are on his wish-list which he has drawn up in the past week and loan players are expected to be the major way in which Robinson will bring players in.

Dons have had great success with loaning players from Arsenal (Benik Afobe), Tottenham Hotspur (Dele Alli) and Chelsea (Patrick Bamford and Lewis Baker) over the past couple of years and while there is a great relationship between Dons and those clubs, Robinson is also not shutting the door on looking at other Premier League clubs for young, exciting loan players.

"I'm sure we'll get a very good pick from a talented pond of players," said Robinson.

"It's hit us all internally what we may have to pay to bring players in.

"It'll be difficult but we've got promoted automatically with one of the lowest budgets of all time so we've worked miracles before and we're good at that."

But as well as bringing in new recruits, Robinson is keen to stick with the players who earned Dons promotion from League One and feels they have earned their shot at playing in the Championship.

He said: "A lot of them (current players) deserve the opportunity to compete again because they've given the club the platform to go and be better. I don't want to turn my back on them and the players deserve an opportunity.

"We're well on the way with conversations with players but I don't think any of them are sober enough to give me a concrete answer yet!"

"We will make one or two decisions and we've got to get it right."

One player who will definitely be playing in a Dons shirt next season is Carl Baker, who signed a new contract with the club that was announced at the club's promotion celebrations at Middleton Hall, the centre:mk last Friday evening.

The Dons Player of the Year has been instrumental in helping the club reach the second tier of English football and he said how happy he was to have signed on for Dons for at least another year.

"It's a great chance for me to play back in the Championship," said the 32-year-old.

"I'm glad I'm going to be here for at least another year."

Another player Robinson would love to bring back is 22-goal striker Will Grigg, although the Liverpudlian also said he would be quite happy to see the likes of other loanees such as Lewis Baker back at the club next season as well given the achievements of the team this season.

Grigg signed on loan from Championship Brentford last summer and has become a fans favourite to the extent that supporters have been chanting 'sign him up' whenever he has scored.

But with Brentford manager Mark Warburton leaving the club at the conclusion of their play-off campaign, which has another week or two to run depending on whether they can overturn their 2-1 first-leg deficit to Middlesbrough, the next incumbent of the Brentford manager's post would have a big say on whether he thinks Grigg's future lies at Griffin Park or not.

"We'd like him to be an MK Dons player," said Robinson.

"But for as much as we'd like him, that's not up to us, it's up to Will Grigg, his people and Brentford.

"We'd like him here 100 per cent and we would like to think we would be making contact with Brentford.

"They're a club that are going to be taken over by a new head coach in the summer so you just don't know the understanding of where he's at with anything whatsoever."

On the coaching side of the club, Keith Andrews has told the Irish Examiner that he has made a 'gentleman's agreement' to join Dons as a coach after his contract with Bolton Wanderers runs out in June.

Meanwhile, QPR and Burnley have been relegated from the Premier League, so Dons know they will play those two clubs next season.

Loan stars: Will Grigg and Rob Hall are two of the loan players who impressed for Dons this season and Karl Robinson says he wants to bring many of his loanees back for 2015-16
